“Once Upon a Time & Just Imagine”

Saturday 25th March 2023 - Live Event

10am for 10.30am to 12 noon

Venue: Bristol University School of Education-Please bring your own cup (BYOC)

We are delighted to welcome inspirational speaker, Helen Moylett, back to Bristol for our second ‘in-person’ CPD of 2023.

“If you don’t know history it is as if you were born yesterday. And if you were born yesterday, anybody up there in a position of power can tell you anything, and you have no way of checking up on it”
(Howard Zinn)

‘History is important’ explains Helen. She also recognises we are told a lot about the early years curriculum by people ‘up there’ because they know the early years are important and yet we remain underfunded. This session will build on some of the ideas Helen explored in her September 2022 session about being a hopeful professional. She will reflect on how the lessons our curriculum history teaches us can support us to travel hopefully and continue to put children and families at the heart of practice.

Book securely, through the Early Education hosting page, using the link overleaf.

Cost: £10 or £5 with discount for Early Education members. Please pay the correct amount when you book.

About Helen Moylett

Helen is an independent early years consultant and has a national reputation as an inspirational conference speaker. Early in her career she worked in schools as a primary, early years and home school liaison teacher, an adviser and then as a senior lecturer in early years and primary at Manchester Metropolitan University. In 2000 she left academia and became head of an early years centre. As a head teacher she was a Birth to Three Matters trainer and researcher. From 2004-2011 she worked for the National Strategies and was centrally involved in developing the EYFS and led the Every Child a Talker programme. She was an expert adviser to the Tickell EYFS review and co-authored Development Matters (2012) as well as contributing to Birth to 5 Matters (2021). Helen has written and edited several early years books the most recent being the second edition of Characteristics of Effective Early Learning: Helping young children become learners for life (2022). She tutors at the Centre for Research in Early Childhood in Birmingham and is a Vice President of Early Education. She received a Nursery World Lifetime Achievement Award in 2019.

You can receive a 20% discount on Helen's second edition of Characteristics of Effective Early Learning by using the code OPENUP20 when ordering this book directly from Characteristics of Effective Early Learning 2e \(mheducation.co.uk\)
